

Crash Landing On You

By Lee Jung-hyo, Park Ji-eun

An incident that cannot and should not happen has happened! A story that starts in North Korea, where people look the same, speak the same language, and share the same roots but cannot and should not meet.

One day, Yoon Se-ri, an heiress to a giant company, crash lands after an accident while paragliding. She meets the North Korean officer Lee Jung-hyeok, who values principle above all and does not believe in compromising. It's just like when Dorothy was thrust away into Oz and met the Wizard.

Like when a pilot crash-landed in the desert and met the Little Prince, countless ties, fortune, and beautiful stories sprout out of unluckiness, unhappiness, and a crash landing. "Crash Landing on You" depicts the top-secret love story of a man and a woman who met miraculously.
