

The Secret

Produced by Rhonda Byrne and directed by Drew Heriot

The Secret explains the law that governs all people's lives and teaches them how to purposely create, with minimum effort, a life full of joy. Produced by Rhonda Byrne and directed by Drew Heriot, it emphasises how the Law of Attraction can be successfully applied in people's lives. It features interviews with some of the most prominent personalities in medicine, psychology, business, science and history.

The film recounts how the most outstanding individuals discovered the key ingredient of success and achieved immortality in the realm of human endeavour. Examples of such people include Galileo, Beethoven, Edison, Einstein, Napoleon, Lincoln and Carnegie. The self-help documentary stresses that any person can overcome any challenge, including disease, and achieve power, strength, health, abundance and perfect peace.
